SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 733
By Burks

A RESOLUTION to congratulate James Brown for outstanding work as an intern for Senator Burks.

WHEREAS, James Brown, a senior student at Tennessee Technological University, was one of the select few chosen from a vast pool of applicants to serve in the enviable position of legislative intern for the General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, James has performed his many duties with unflagging diligence and loyalty, displaying much skill and intelligence in the process and earning respect from his peers and members of the General Assembly alike; and

WHEREAS, while attending Tennessee Tech, James has established outstanding academic credentials, while majoring in Political Science; and

WHEREAS, this stellar scholar will graduate in May 1998 with an enviable 3.4 grade point average; and

WHEREAS, James Brown proudly hails from Byrdstown, the hometown of Cordell Hull's birthplace; and

WHEREAS, James has been a constant source of pride to his parents, Linda and Pete Crouch and Larry Brown; and

WHEREAS, James' calm disposition and congenial manner have soothed the troubled waters sometimes encountered in a busy and demanding Senate office, and Senator Burks and his permanent staff will truly miss his presence at the end of this legislative session; and
